ANNEXURE-AMANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT*A. GENERAL ECONOMIC SCENARIO :

India recorded the highest growth rates in the mid-2000s, and is one of the fastest-growing economies in the world. The growth was led primarily due to a huge increase in the size of the middle class consumer, a large labor force and considerable foreign investments. India is now much more closely integrated with the world economy as its share of trade to GDP of goods and services has tripled between 1990-2010. At the same time, the extent of financial integration, measured by flows of capital as a share of GDP, has also increased dramatically and the role of India in the world economy has commensurately expanded, along with the other major members of emerging markets.

Economic growth stood at 6.5% for the 2011-12 fiscal year and growth momentum to pick up in next two fiscals to 7.6 per cent 2012-13 and 8.6 per cent in 2013-14. Agriculture and service sector continue to perform well. 2.5% growth in Agro sector and service sector grew by 9.4%. India's Index of Industrial Production was 4.10 percent in the month of February 2012 on a year-on-year basis, as compared to 1.10 percent growth in January 2012 and 6.48 percent growth in February 2011. Inflation on WPI was high but showed clear slow down by the yearend; this is likely to spur investment activities leading to positive impact on growth.

B. CONSTRUCTION AND INFRASTRUCTURE SECTOR IN INDIA:

Infrastructure and Construction – the long term opportunity The Planning Commission's XIth Five-Year Plan (2007-2012) had already identified that inadequate infrastructure was a major constraint on the country's rapid growth. The Plan had, therefore, emphasized the need for massive expansion in investment in infrastructure based on a combination of public and private investment, the latter through various forms of public-private partnerships (PPP). In the last few years, substantial progress has been made in this respect. The total investment in infrastructure, which includes roads, railways, ports, airports, electricity, telecommunications, oil gas pipelines and irrigation, is estimated to have increased from 5.7% of GDP in 2007 to around 8.0% by 2012.

The approach paper to the XIIth Five-Year Plan (2012-2017) highlights that the thrust on accelerating the pace of investment in infrastructure must continue as this is critical for sustaining and bolstering growth. Public investment in infrastructure will have to bear a large part of the infrastructure needs in backward and remote areas to improve connectivity and expand the much needed public services. Since resource constraints will continue to limit public investment in infrastructure in other areas, PPP-based development needs to be encouraged wherever feasible. It is necessary to review the factors which may be constraining private investment, and take steps to rectify them. PPP, with appropriate regulation and concern for equity, should also be encouraged in the social sectors, such as health and education. Several State Governments are already taking steps in this direction.

Considering the critical need of developing infrastructure in the country, construction activities are crucial for creating physical infrastructure in the country. Construction, on an average, accounts for more than half of the investment required for setting up critical infrastructure facilities like power projects, ports, railways, roads, bridges. Table 1 gives the estimates of average construction intensity of different infrastructure projects.

The cumulative investment in infrastructure in the Twelfth Five-Year Plan (2012-2017) is targeted at around $1 trillion. Nearly half of this investment will be channelized into construction projects. Therefore, there is considerable long term business scope for players in the infrastructure related large scale construction business.

C. CAPITAL MARKETS IN INDIA:

As on 30 December 2011, the markets stood 26 per cent down from the all-time peak achieved during the special one-hour muhurut trading on 5 November 2010 when the Sensex had touched 21004.96 and Nifty 6312.45. The indices closed at 15454.92 (-24.64 per cent for the Sensex) and 4624.3 (- 24.62 per cent for Nifty) in the calendar year.

The amount of capital mobilized through private placement in corporate debt in 2011-12 has reduced as compared to 2010-11.

Equity Derivatives

In the equity derivative segment, the NSE witnessed a decrease in the total turnover while the BSE witnessed an increase in the total turnover.

Reasons for Market Movements

- Historically low yields in developed markets due to accommodative monetary policies and weak economic prospects have pushed FII inflows to emerging markets to record highs.
- The primary market got a new lease of life this calendar year with Indian companies raising Rs. 69,192 crores through IPOs and FPOs.
- Global recovery also resulted in an upsurge in the markets, boosting sentiments across the globe.
- Globally, leaders are striving to keep the pace of growth intact.

During the years 2006 to 2010, the Company could not find any significant business opportunity in construction and infrastructure segment. However, from the financial year 2010-11, the company is striving hard to find various growth opportunities in construction and infrastructure segment also and during the year 2011-12, the company has earned a turnover of about Rs. 611.50 Lacs from this segment.

The Company has done the major business in another segment of IT i.e. dealing in shares, securities and derivatives. The turnover of the Company in this segment accounted for about Rs. 1,605.98 Lacs during the year 2011-12.

The total turnover of the Company was Rs. 2,217.48 Lacs as compared to the turnover of Rs. 13,857.13 Lacs of the previous year 2010-11 showing a reduction of about 84% due to change in accounting policy. Similarly the net profit of the Company during the year 2011-12 was Rs. 11.26 Lacs as compared to the net profit of Rs. 15.39 Lacs of the previous year 2010-11 showing a reduction of about 26.85%.

E. OPPORTUNITIES:

A vibrant economy, better employment prospects, improving salary structure, improving sentiments among potential buyers, potential for increasing urbanisation and favourable demographics form the key growth drivers for the construction and infrastructure and also the overall growth of the companies in all sectors thereby enabling the share prices of such companies to improve further. In the range of 8-9%, India's GDP growth continues to be amongst world's fastest. The economic growth is visible, with hiring plans increasing across various industries, rising salaries and improving economic sentiment. Several service sectors are also witnessing a revival, with the IT/ITES sector which accounts for about 50-70% of demand in India's construction sector, ramping up hiring plans and raising salaries.

The infrastructure space in India is opening up further and significant progress has been made in initiating expanded infrastructure development plans across the economy. Increased emphasis is laid on the Public Private Partnership (PPP) approach for meeting the large financing requirements.

The capital market is also witnessing an increasing trend in view of strong fundamentals and economic indicators of India.

F. THREATS:

India's construction and infrastructure sector is largely unorganised and dominated by a large number of small players (with limited corporate or large / international names on the national scene yet).

Key risks synonymous to the construction and infrastructure sector, include the global recessionary trend, economic slowdown, increase in financial cost, non-availability (or undue increase in cost) of raw materials such as land, cement, steel, labour, etc. coupled with market fluctuations.

KCL is adequately equipped to face and mitigate any such adverse situation. The Company does not apprehend any inherent risk in the construction and infrastructure sector in the long run, with the exception of certain primary concerns that have afflicted the progress of real estate industry in general like:

1. Restrictive legislation and related adverse changes, if any, in governmental policies relating to construction and infrastructure sector.
2. Limited investment from the organised sector.
3. One of the most overburdened tax segments in the country.
4. Rising inflation
5. High interest rate
6. Volatile global economic environment.

Beyond standard business risks, the Company faces competition from both its old competitors as well as new entrants in the sector.

The Capital market is highly volatile and does not depend upon domestic economic scenario but it depends upon global economic scenario, FII inflows, statutory rules and regulations, etc.

G. RISKS AND CONCERNS:

KCL deploys a robust and effective risk management framework across diverse spectrum of its business operations in construction and infrastructure segment and securities and derivatives segment. The risks can be classified as those relating to quality, value, analysis, competitive market environment including comparative demand-supply imbalance, operating price, highly volatile market, efficient and cost-effective project execution, prices, availability of key raw materials including human capital and prevalent regulatory and statutory norms.

While risks inherent to the industry and its macro-economic drivers remain beyond the control of any Company, a vigilant and pro-active risk management enables KCL in taking preventive steps at the right time and insulate its business interest to a greater extent from risks of those natures.

H. OUTLOOK:

Having witnessed a visible revival in demand and return of consumer confidence during financial year 2012, the construction and infrastructure sector appears to continue its momentum, going forward. A vast majority of incremental development of infrastructure is expected to appear in Tier II cities in the coming years. In order to truly emerge as a leading global economy, India's civic and social infrastructure would need to develop fast. Overall, the outlook for construction and infrastructure activities in India is slated to be promising. Though downside risks of global events, particularly movement in prices of commodities like crude oil remain, the Indian economy is poised to further improve and consolidate in terms of key macroeconomic indicators and KCL expects to reap rich dividends from this ongoing growth phase in India.

I. INTERNAL CONTROL MECHANISM:

The company has adequate internal control systems in place, commensurate with its size and nature of operations. The Internal Auditor, inter alia, covers all significant areas of the company's operations and submits the report to the Audit Committee for their review.
