PM slams Nitish over 'indecent' remarks

ANAND MOHAN J
Bhopal, November 8

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA MODI Wednesday criticised Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar's crude remarks on how education among women has helped control population, saying he "doesn't have any shame", and the country was humiliated in front of the world because of his comments. The CM, meanwhile, apologised for his remarks with folded hands.

Nitish was speaking during the tabling of the caste census report in the Bihar legislative assembly. During his address, the CM suggested that an educated woman is able to ensure sex doesn't necessarily end in pregnancy, which helps keep the population in check.

"If I have said certain things that have been inviting so much criticism... If what I said was wrong, I apologise. I take back my words. If my statement is being criticised, I apologise," Kumar said just before the beginning of the third day of the Assembly session.

On Wednesday, Modi addressed three rallies in Madhya Pradesh's Damoh, Guna and Morena. In Guna, he said, "Those who read newspapers, those who watch TV, their attention must have gone to an incident yesterday... One of the big leaders of the INDIA Alliance, who roams around with the flag of their alliance... that leader said indecent things in the assembly, where mothers and sisters were also present. No one can imagine it. He doesn't have any shame. Not only that, not a single leader of the alliance was ready to say a word against the terrible insult of mothers and sisters."

"Those who have such an attitude towards mothers and sisters, can they ever do good for you? How low will you stoop? You are humiliating the country in front of the world. My mothers and sisters, I will not back down and will do whatever possible for your respect," Modi said.

Earlier, speaking in Damoh, Modi remarked on Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge's comments in Gwalior a day earlier. Kharge had termed Modi, Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan, ED, CBI and IT as the "Panch Pandavas".

Modi said that before 2014, the Prime Minister of the country was remote controlled by the Congress, and these days Kharge is controlled by a remote.

Advani turns 96; PM, Shah visit him

Advani, former deputy prime minister and former BJP president, turned 96 on Wednesday. "Went to Advani ji's residence and wished him on the occasion of his birthday," Modi said in a post on X. He also shared his pictures with the BJP veteran. In another post, the prime minister described Advani as "a beacon of integrity and dedication who has made monumental contributions that have strengthened our nation". "His visionary leadership has furthered national progress and unity. I wish him good health and a long life," Modi said. Advani's efforts towards nation-building continue to inspire 140 crore Indians, he added. Taking to X, Shah wished Advani a long life and good health. He said Advani nourished the BJP with his tireless hard work and organisational skills. "From the inception of the BJP to the party coming to power, Advani ji's incomparable contribution is an eternal source of inspiration for every worker," the home minister said. PTI
